

Survey

These are about how a student feels about a topic or skill. It doesn't give you a completely accurate picture of what a student can do, but it does show you how they think they can do. It is important to determine this mindset and whether the student believes he can be successful.

Speaking Mindset

Check the box that best describes how you feel about these statements.

Agree

Mostly
Agree

Mostly
Disagree

Disagree

You are born with your ability to speak.

Your intelligence determines whether you will be good at speaking.

You have to be able to memorize to be a good speaker.

Learning to speak is more difficult than changing your ability to speak.

Your eagerness to volunteer to speak is a good indication of your speaking ability.

You can improve your ability to speak publicly.

How confident you are shows good speaking ability.

You have to practice public speaking in order to be good at it.

It is nearly impossible to improve your ability to publicly speak.

I will have no value for public speaking in my future life.